GUIDELINES

CODE OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT FOR MANAGERS IN THE COWD

INTRODUCTION

Cagayan de Oro City Water District (COWD) may have always articulated its mission to provide excellent water service to the community for more than Four (4) decades already, but it remains mindful of the professional delivery of managerial functions of its Executives. The COWD is also mindful of the worth and rights of ordinary employees being supervised and that includes giving them a voice in matters affecting them.

The Code of Professional Conduct is deemed necessary for COWD because the workforce cannot move forward without the integrity of its Managers providing the core foundation. It intends to help Managers perform at their best and bring about the improvements to the culture of the District resulting to improved staff well-being and enhanced COWD performance.

COWD believes that the Code of Professional Conduct for Managers provides the ethical foundation along with explicit standards of conduct to adhere to at all times. Moreover, COWD believes that the Code will enhance and deepen the confidence and trust of the employees in their Managers. A valuable synergy between Managers and Employees will enable the delivery of quality public service.

Purpose of the Code

The Code of Professional Conduct for Managers in Cagayan de Oro City Water District (COWD) applies to employees appointed or assuming the position as General Manager (GM), Assistant General Managers (AGM), Department Managers and Division Managers. Its observance shall satisfy the following threefold purpose:

- 1. It serves as a guiding compass as Managers direct the way in performing the work and upholding the honor and dignity of the organization;
- 2. It may be used to clarify the functions and expectations of a Manager; and
- 3. It shall become a valid basis and reference in the conduct of investigative and disciplinary actions dealing with the suitability of a Manager.

STRUCTURE OF THE CODE

Recognizing the three main purposes above, this Code commences by setting out the ethical foundation of a COWD Manager. This is captured in the core values of ACCOUNTABILITY, RESULT-DRIVEN, TEAM PLAYER and FAITH.
